

The 111 Campaign

For The Purloined Millstone by E.A. Sprechmann

What We're Doing

We're making a movie in Greencastle. We will be filming in the summer of 2015, but there's a lot of work to be done before then. We will spend the winter raising funds, the spring laying the ground work, the summer shooting the film, and then putting the finishing touches on it in the fall.

Why We're Doing It

Our movie, The Purloined Millstone by E.A. Sprechmann is a quirky satire/dark comedy with a twist. (It has a lot of twists, actually, but most of them are in the plot!) The twist? This film would have passed the Hays code in Hollywood's Golden Era. It is a modern-day movie without the profanity, gore, or innuendos. It's just pure entertainment!

How You Can Get Involved

You can help us by giving a tax-free donation to our film during our crowd funding campaign. Here's how it works:

- Make a pledge today.
- Wait until the campaign officially launches, (It's in early January*, but we'll send you a reminder.)
- Get your reward as soon as it's available.

Please give generously. We hire local people and businesses whenever we can. Greencastle can grow and have fun at the same time!

If you want your donation to be counted towards 2014 taxes, we can accept it early.*

For a tax-free donation of $111

You can help launch the latest movie to be shot in Greencastle. You'll get a T-shirt, your name will appear on our website, our Facebook page, and you'll be thanked personally during our Guinness World Record attempt in February.
